Language and Communication

Purpose and Goals

The faculty and staff of the Department of Languages and Communication work diligently to maintain a learning environment that enhances educational growth and professional opportunities for our students. Programs in Communication, English, and Language offer students a liberal arts education emphasizing the acquisition of language and communication skills as well as advanced knowledge of media techniques. The objective of the department is to prepare students for a broad range of careers in teaching, languages, professional writing, interpersonal communication, public relations, and media production.

Academic Standards

Students must earn a minimum grade of a “C” in all classes taken in their major disciplines and a minimum grade of a “C” in all classes taken in their minor disciplines (if applicable).

Minor in Humanities

A minor in humanities offers an interdisciplinary program of study that allows students to explore various areas of interest. Study in humanities expands knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behavior, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Classes may not count toward the core curriculum, major and minor.

Eligible course disciplines include: ARAB (arabic), ARCH (Architecture), ARTS (Arts), CHIN (Chinese), DRAM (Theatre), ENGL (English), FLLT (Foreign Languages), HUMA (Humanities), MUSC (Music), PHIL (Philosophy), and SPAN (Spanish). Courses not listed as elective options may be considered for the minor, but must be approved by the Department Head for Languages and Communications.
